

SSAA NSW H&C PROGRAM 2012

TILTERWEIRA Parent and Child

July 8th – 14th

Parents this is an opportunity to share life's experiences with your teenage children.

Activity one week camp at SSAA NSW's own 80,000 acre property of Tilterweira Station near Wanaaring.

Workshops:

- * SSAA Hunting and Conservation Course accreditation. This course is recognised by all SSAA H&C Groups in Australia. It will allow you to travel interstate and participate in programmed Feral Pest management projects.
- * NSW Game Council R Licence accreditation: R Licences give you permission to hunt on selected parcels of public land
- * use UHF radio during field activities for communication (GME Electrophone radios)
- * scats , tracks and sign an understand animal behavior and improve your hunting skills.
- * bullet placement program for hunters

Tilterweira Station facilities : Licenced Range facilities allowing shotgun, rifle and pistol shooting.
: Large Camp Kitchen - Gas Stove, Fuel Stove, Microwave Oven and BBQ
: Large Cool room with adequate space for perishables, Camp refrigeration
: Cray fishing, swimming in the Paroo River, photography, bush walks
: Guided hunting on request.

Every participant will be provided with one guided hunt for the week and have the opportunity to take one trophy goat and one goat for the camp kitchen — unlimited Pigs, Foxes and Rabbits .

Three meals will be supplied by the camp staff.

Evening meal on Sunday, evening meal Wednesday and a Friday night BBQ.

Participants will be asked to help out with the daily camp functioning to assist the volunteer staff make the experience worthwhile for all.

Other meals are to be provided by the campers.

Tilterweira station is not licenced so participants must supply their own alcoholic beverages.

Responsible use of alcohol rules apply.

All participants are required to have a current NSW Shooters Licence or junior permit.

Accommodation is shared at the property's well maintained shearer's quarters

Minimum Caliber for hunting pigs and goats is 6mm or .243

This activity represents excellent value for one adult and one junior SSAA member at $ 450 for the week.

A discount of $100 applies for SSAA NSW Inc. registered H&C participants.

For information and booking forms contact

SSAA NSW

PO Box 1001

St Marys 1790

02 8889 0404 / 0414 676 606